Be ye comforted: says Your God. Be comforted, My People. Say the word over the heart of Jerusalem, and proclaim to her: Her warfare is full—the punishment of her iniquity is accepted. She has received of the LORD's hand double for all her sins.

Get up! Shine for your Light is come. The Glory of the LORD is risen upon you. Nations are come to Your Light—all of them are gathered together. Lift up your eyes roundabout—see your sons come from afar, your daughters carried on their side.¹

1 Isa40:1-2 Isa60:1-4

That is the Word of God to all Israel at the end of this Age. It marks the end of all travail for His people, and this is the story of how God does it—His return of Israel to Himself through Messiah and all planet Earth under Messiah's reign. From the text of the Holy Scriptures given in italics, God and Israel converse beginning long ago about meeting Messiah. The story begs the question—where is the LORD's Messiah, and when will He meet Israel? God tells us by His prophets about their first meeting in His and Israel's own words, and what must happen before His people meet Messiah, again. This is their story. Second only to that of His sacrifice nailed to a tree: the scope of this story's length and breadth are the greatest God shall have ever done. Now, let us turn back a little that we may press on to the end of the Age.
